

A note from The team

In the spirit of Galway's rich history of storytelling, music, and unforgettable nights, our menu brings together the legends of the past with the techniques of modern mixology.

Here you will find beautifully balanced classics that have defined generations, sitting proudly alongside contemporary creations that push the boundaries of flavour, technique, and presentation. Every bottle, spirit, and ingredient has been selected with care, representing both the iconic names of the beverage world and remarkable local producers whose craftsmanship speaks for itself.

From bold and adventurous to smooth and timeless, our collection offers something for every palate. We invite you to explore, discover new favourites, and enjoy a drinking experience designed with passion, creativity, and a touch of Galway magic.

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Myths and legends of the broader Galway area

The Fairy Road An Bóthar Sióg

22.00

A narrow road in Connemara is left untouched, said to belong to the Good Folk who travel it by moonlight. Disturb it and misfortune follows, but leave a drink, and they may grant a blessing instead. Jameson Black Barrel, Mozart Dark Chocolate, Espresso, Salted Miso Caramel, Cream

The King An Rí

22.00

Beneath Lough Corrib lies a hidden stone palace where an ancient king sleeps, destined to rise when Ireland needs him.

Bacardi 4 yr, Campari
Mango and Sea Buckthorn, Basil

The Claddagh An Cladach

22.50

Richard Joyce of Claddagh was captured by pirates and taken far from home. While in captivity, he learned goldsmithing and made a ring, a crowned heart held by hands. When he returned, he found his love had waited. The Claddagh ring became a symbol of lasting love and loyalty.

An Dulaman Gin, Valentia Vermouth
Suze, Seaweed Tincture

The Piper An Píobaire

32.00

On foggy nights by the Spanish Arch, faint pipes are heard over the wind, said to be a piper whose music once stilled the sea, and never truly left.

Xin Gin, Litchi Liqueur,
Red Berries and Rose Syrup,
Champagne

The Lost Giant An Fathach Cailte

22.00

There is a boulder shaped like a sleeping giant in the hills of Connemara. Rumour has it he drank every tavern dry before falling asleep beneath the mountains.

Cinco Patricio Tequila,
Mandarin and Yuzu Cordial, Melon Seltzer

The Witch An Cailleach

22.00

By the rocks beyond Salthill lived a woman who spoke the tides. Sailors sought her charms for safe voyages. Whether witch or healer, all agreed never sail without a drink in her honour.

Boatyard Vodka ,
Aromatic Tomato Water
